Over 400 hours of TV programming are now captioned per week. The U.S. Department of Education is offering a $20 rebate to people who purchase a Telecaption 4000 before December 31, 1990. The unit is available for less than $200 from Sears, J.C. Penney, and Service Merchandise catalog, Highland Superstores and ISD PTCO. For more information, please contact Cris Anderson, Outreach or Laureen Gallimore, PTCO President

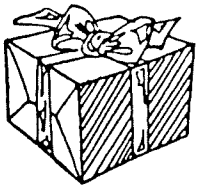
ISD would like to say "THANK YOU" to the Indiana Artists Club of Indianapolis for their generous donation of two beautiful paintings, "Rude Dogs" and "Heirloom". We especially want to thank the donors, Mr. & Mrs. Harry A. Davis and Mr. & Mrs. Sydney Steele for their thoughtfulness.

Dear Santa,

Thank you for giving me a gift of priceless wealth - the gift of belonging. I can't think of any gift in my life that's ever meant more to me. For this year I have been shown the true meaning of Christmas.



Thank you Santa and all of your helpers from the bottom of my heart.

Merry Christmas!

Linda Coleman

REMINDER TO ALL STAFF: Learning in the classroom is imperative for all students and we need to maintain the value of education. It appears that the classroom instruction frequently has been interrupted and disrupted for different reasons, such as setting up appointments, short chats, and so on. For those of you who wish to see teachers or students, please refer to schedules posted outside of the classrooms or send notes as needed. There are times when teachers have planning and lunch break periods. Students and teachers will appreciate your effort in this.

Principal

ATTENTION PARENTS: Please see supervising teachers for pick-up passes prior to picking up your child(ren) daily from 8:00 am. to 3:00 pm. Only Supervising Teachers from High School, Middle School, Elementary, and Preschool can issue such passes. Other departments will not be responsible. If you are to pick up your sick child from the Health Center, go directly to the center without a pass. This will ensure us with the proper information of your child's whereabouts. Your cooperation to make this school a safe environment for all students will be greatly appreciated.

Security/Teachers: If parents show up, please instruct them to get passes from the designated staff (see above) before they pick up child(ren) from school.

Rachel Stone
Principal

Preschool/Parents' ASL Class: Jennifer Seet and Elen Zook are scheduling a Pre-School/parents' ASL class for this next session. A Pre-School parent interested in taking the class should call Jennifer, Ext. 404.

Washington --- Education Secretary Lauro Cavazos said Tuesday that his department will establish a research center to help give parents the power to determine what schools their children attend. Although the Bush administration has spoken approvingly of the movement toward parental choice in education, often called simply "choice", the new Center for Choice in Education is its first concrete action in support of the idea. It will provide a toll-free telephone number, (800) 442-PICK, to answer questions.
